

home to a most unusual museum. Exhibitions that'll make you chuckle or shed a tear. Exhibitions that touch your heart and make you think. And wherever you look there's something fascinating to see. A magic place.

An emotional place – a place of passion, sensitivity, pride, sadness and, rarest of all in a museum, humour! A place with important stories to tell, statements to make, questions to ponder.

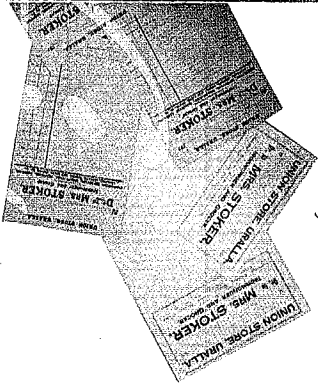

Some of our exhibitions . . .

It's just not Cricket!
... bizarre.

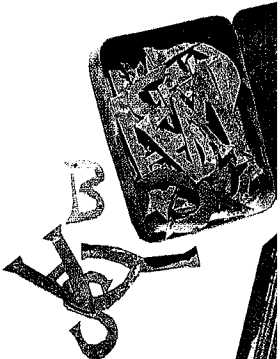

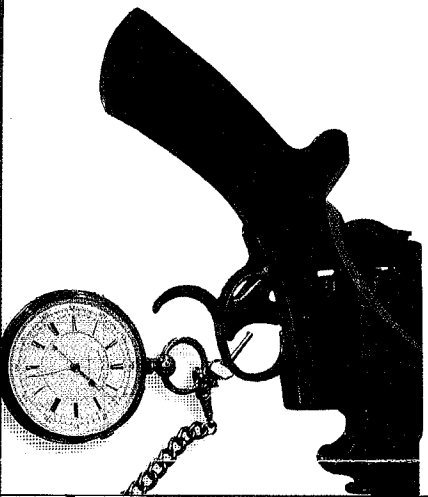

A Tribute to the Aniwan
... an evocative apology.

New Gold Mountain
... Chinese artefacts of national significance.

Corporal Cecil Stoker
... look into this young man's eyes.

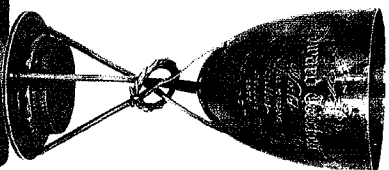

Thunderbolt. Life and Legend
... the graphic and grim story of the infamous bushranger.

She'll be Right, Mate
... tools, with a wry sense of humour.

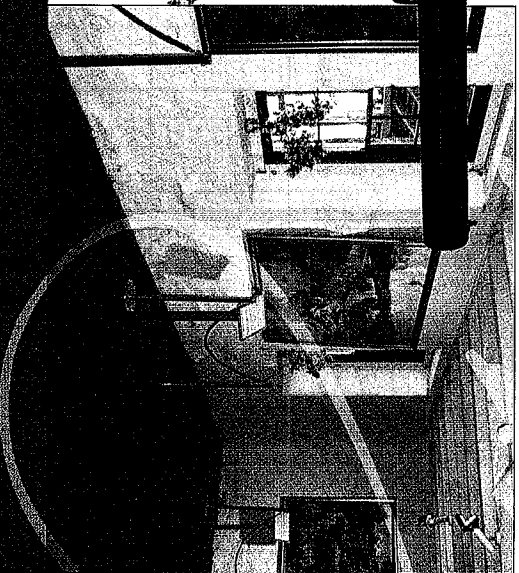

Trickett's Triumph
... Australia's first World Champion. See the Holy Grail of Australian sport.

The "Death of Thunderbolt" Gallery

A stunning series of nine oil paintings by Philip Pomroy.

Dramatic guided tours for groups. An unforgettable experience. Bookings essential.

The Thunderbolt Centre and Gardens

a magical place . . .

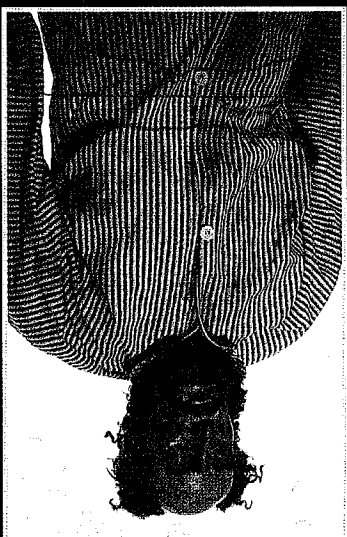

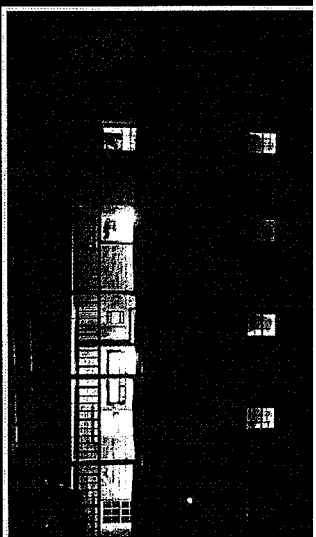

for your celebration, wedding, party, reunion, conference, or performance.

Our experienced team, new kitchen facilities and bar guarantee a memorable event! There's nothing else like it . . . anywhere!

Catering options or self catering available. Morning and afternoon tea, lunch and dinner for coach groups. Bookings essential.

McCrossin's Mill Museum

Open Daily 10am - 5pm
and by appointment.

Ph: 02 6778 3022

www.uhs.org.au

Supported by
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES NSW

URALLIA

McCrossin's Mill Museum

find magic